Death of John Koentges

The death of John Koentges occurred on Tuesday morning, following a long siege of Bright's disease. Koentges was a native of Belgium and has been a resident of The Pass for a long time, lately being engaged as fire boss at Greenhill mine. He leaves a wife and a young son and a brother, all residing here. Interment took place Wednesday afternoon at the Protestant cemetery, following a service held at the home by the Rev. W. T. Young.

A number of beautiful wreaths adorned the casket, principal among them being one from his fellow compatriots, which was a real work of art and one of the best productions of the Lethbridge flower houses.

The new Blairmore band, in which deceased always manifested keen interest, was in attendance at the funeral, which was one of the largest seen in this district for many months.

Death of J. M. Easterbrook

In the death of James M. Easterbrook, which occurred at Denver, Colorado, this week, Cowley loses one of its most respected citizens and successful farmers. Mr. Easterbrook came to Alberta about eighteen years ago from Newfoundland, accompanied by Mrs. Easterbrook and three small children. After looking over different parts of Canada for a farming location, they finally decided to locate at Cowley, where they have been most successful. The family has since grown up, some married and scattered to different parts, but two of the younger children and Ralph remain at home. About four years ago the old couple paid a visit back to Newfoundland and points in New England, and on their return to Cowley took up residence in a splendid stone mansion just completed at considerable cost. As a result of the energy of Mr. Easterbrook and his sons, the Easterbrook farm at Cowley is to day one of the largest and best equipped in this corner of the province. Mr. Easterbrook was of a very kind and jovial disposition and will be greatly missed. With the bereaved relatives we tender our sincerest sympathy.

Death of Mrs. R. Green

The death of Mrs. Reuben Green on Wednesday evening, at 5 o'clock removed from The Pass one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens and from Southern Alberta a pioneer. Mrs. Green had reached the advanced age of seventy-nine and nine months, and though ill for several months was conscious to the very last. Before the spark of life had fled, the aged lady requested that a former pastor of the Baptist church in Blairmore and one held in the highest esteem by her, in the person of J. F. Hunter, now of Calgary, conduct her funeral services, and that her sons (4) act as pall bearers. We understand that both requests will be carried out.

Mrs. Green was predeceased by her husband a good many years, and is survived by four sons, two daughters and a large number of grand children.

Interment takes place on Saturday, at 2.30, from the residence on Cement Street. Service will be conducted at the Union Church by J. F. Hunter, assisted by Rev. W. T. Young.

A grand dance will be given in the Italian Society hall at Coleman on Monday night next, in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Italian triumphal entry into Rome.

Walter Wain Has Narrow Escape

An accident, that came near being fatal, happened at Bellvue on Monday afternoon, when Walter Wain, who was effecting repairs to a dwelling house, fell from a scaffold suspended some ten feet from the ground, and in falling the back of his head came in contact with the edge of the scaffold plank, sending him to the ground unconscious. Medical aid was immediately summoned and it was found on examination that the lower part of the skull was fractured and there was little hope for his recovery. His condition, however, improved and there is now hope that he will pull through.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Adlam

The death of Mrs. William Adlam occurred rather unexpectedly at Hillcrest on Monday from heart failure.

Mrs. Adlam was a sister in law of Mrs. J. A. McDonald, of Blairmore, and was well known throughout the district. She leaves, besides her husband, an infant daughter, born but a couple of weeks ago.

Interment took place at Hillcrest on Tuesday afternoon, service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Newman. Floral offerings included the following: Willow from Sentinel Lodge A. F. & A. M., anchor from Fishbones' Association, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. C. Carlson, sprays from J. Lottus, Mes. Howcroft and Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Warrent, cross from Messrs. Burnett & Cruickshanks, wreath from Mrs. A. White and family, star from Mr. and Mrs. Buckley, and a spray from friends.

William Adlam, of Hillcrest, desires through the Enterprise to thank all friends for kindnesses and expressions of sympathy with him and his family in their bereavement.

Mrs. Nellie McClung Lectures at Coleman

A most interesting lecture, dealing with the coming referendum on the liquor question, was delivered by Mrs. Nellie McClung, gifted authoress and speaker, at the Institutional Church, Coleman, last night. All through her discourse was brimful of hard facts and no small amount of wit and humor, and those who had the pleasure of hearing her, state that the lecture was a treat they would not wish to miss. The church was packed with people, about half the audience being from Blairmore and Frank.

The Growing Responsibility of Labor

Significant of the change taking place in the minds of people as to the proper relationship which should exist between the individual and the public, or, perhaps, it would be more correct to say between the citizen and the State, is a decision of far-reaching importance recently arrived at by the Amalgamated Postal Workers' Association in convention assembled at Edmonton.

By an overwhelming majority the convention decided to delete from its bylaws the clause allowing members to join in sympathetic strikes. It will be recalled that two years ago the bosses of many Western cities were crippled and all but demoralized through strikes of post office employees, and that, as a result of congestion of mails, the whole country was put to inconvenience and loss. Again, last year, in the big Winnipeg strike the same thing occurred, notwithstanding that these employees were sworn servants of the State honorably bound to conduct the King's business no matter what might happen.

Now, however, the postal workers have by their own action declared that they will not countenance actions which bring inconvenience and suffering to all the people who are quite guiltless of having inflicted any injustice upon the workers and who are, as individuals, helpless to right wrongs and remove grievances which may exist. At the same time, and properly so, the Postal Workers' Association emphasized their determination to employ all legitimate and legal means at their disposal to uphold the dignity of their organization and secure betterments in wages, hours of service, and working conditions generally.

This action on the part of one important group of organized workers sounds the deathknell of the One Big Union plan of organization in this Dominion. The carrying out of the sinister plans of the O. B. U. is only possible, as its very name implies, by the banding together of workers in all walks of life in one big, overpowering organization which, by reason of its strength, and acting under orders from one central head, could defy all law, Governments and society in general. Unless all organized workers join the O. B. U. it cannot succeed. Should it succeed the workers themselves, would, in the long run, be the greatest sufferers.

The right of all workers to organize for their self-protection, and in order to enable them to bargain efficiently with employers as to wages, hours of labor, and the conditions under which they are called upon to work, is now universally recognized. It is officially accepted in the labor clauses of the League of Nations covenant. But such recognition does not carry with it acceptance of the doctrine that a whole nation can be "held up" and denied the modern necessities of community existence unless any and every demand made is immediately and fully granted.

The strike weapon is an obsolete instrument for the redress of grievances. It is a two-edged sword, and inflicts as much damage, more, injury upon those who use it as upon those against whom it is directed. Methods of conciliation, negotiations looking to a compromise fair to all parties, the establishment of courts of arbitration, are not only a fairer but a much less costly way of arriving at a settlement of industrial disputes, just as has been recognized in the League of Nations as the proper and Christian way of dealing with international differences.

Might does not constitute right. It never did, it never will, and they who resort to force are always liable to find themselves overcome by force. The strength of organized labor lies in the sympathy and support of the people generally, and when labor resorts to any action which alienates public sympathy and support it ruins its own cause. The individual is no longer allowed to take the law into his own hands to adjust personal grievances against another individual. If he does, he finds himself in the clutches of that law which was created for his protection and which he ignored and failed to appeal to for redress. What the individual cannot do, organized bodies of individuals cannot be allowed to do.

In this age there should be established properly constituted courts for the adjustment of all industrial disputes, in whom all parties can have confidence, just as other courts have been established for the protection of individual and corporate rights of all kinds. It is a hopeful sign that organized workers, as represented by the Amalgamated Postal Workers' Association and certain other labor unions, are coming to recognize this fact. They will find the people supporting them, and their influence will be all the greater in future.

Eliminating the Poor Cow

Cow Testing the Only Sure Method To Obtain Increased Production.

The object of cow testing is to give the dairymen accurate knowledge as to the production of milk and fat of each cow in the herd. It is readily admitted that the average cow does not produce as much milk as she is capable of giving, and many dairymen keep one or more cows that do not even pay for their keep. Cow testing shows which cows are worth keeping in the herd and gives evidence against those that should be eliminated from the herd. "The progress of cow testing," bulletin 58, Dairy and Cold Storage Series by A. H. White, B.S.A., shows that many farmers rely on guess work to pick out their best cows from which to save heifer calves for the future herds. Frequently, these guesses are not correct, cows which have good conformation are not always the best producers in the herd. Dairy Records will do away with guess work, and the farmer can safely select his best cows for breeding purposes. The bulletin, "The Progress of Cow Testing," may be secured free upon application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. In addition to giving the essential objects of cow testing it outlines the details of organization and gives some of the results obtained, which shows that many farmers have increased the production of their herds from 30 to 75 per cent. and some have doubled the herd average in a few years. Wherever cow testing has been followed for a few years, a decided increase in the average production of each cow will be found.

One Great Essential To A Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. If it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flashes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weepy and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy?

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health. Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N.S., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flashes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes, when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Burning Old Bills

Millions in Paper Money Destroyed By the Banks.

The report that an American woman had been fatally poisoned as the result of carrying bills in her stocking led to inquiries being made of the Canadian Bank of Commerce regarding the disposition of soiled bank paper, by Anne Merrill, who writes interestingly in the Mail and Empire regarding the procedure of cremating money. That the fatality resulted from infection from bank notes is regarded as very doubtful—it was probably a coincidence; 50 years' experience in Canadian banking has not regarded a case of the kind.

The effort of the banks is to take worn and soiled bills out of circulation whenever the opportunity presents. What this means is indicated by the fact that the mutilated notes of the Bank of Commerce burnt by the directors during the seven months ending June, 1920, represented a face value of $15,315,000, the actual number of notes destroyed being 1,836,000. The cremation ceremonies were 24 in number, and were held on the bank premises, where the furnace used is installed in the basement. The cost of the paper alone would be about $40,000, indicating one item of expense in banking which the public would seldom consider.

Bishops Will Endeavor to Establish Colony in Quebec.

Leaders of the orthodox Mennonite church at Rhineland have decided to take them to Abitibi, Que., and establish a colony there, Mr. J. F. Greenway, deputy minister of education, Winnipeg, has announced.

Mr. Greenway, who returned from a trip to Rhineland, where he organized public school districts, said he had the authority of one of the church elders, who was a member of the delegation which recently waited on Premier Taschereau, of Quebec, for his statement.

The impression prevails, said Mr. Greenway, that the exodus would split the church. Some will follow the bishop and elders, and others will remain in Manitoba. He had no information in regard to the probable number to go.

Good Seed to Increase Crops

About Sixty-five Million Bushels of Seed Required Each Year.

What good seed means to Canada was very clearly shown by a few figures submitted by Mr. L. H. Newman, secretary of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, at the conference on Soil Fertility and Soil Fibre, held at Winnipeg by the Commission of Conservation.

Each spring Canada requires approximately 65,000,000 bushels of seed grain and 9,000,000 bushels of seed potatoes, about 8 per cent of her annual average production.

About 41,000,000 acres are annually planted to these crops in Canada. An increase of but one bushel per acre of this area would add approximately $80,000,000 to the wealth of the country. One of the chief methods of increasing production is by the more general use of seed of better breeding and of varieties better suited to the districts where sown.

Must Keep Money In Canada Says Minister of Finance

Toronto.—On the authority of Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, the following statement has been issued regarding the financial situation in Canada:

"Owing to the financial conditions arising from the war and the change in Canada in recent months from a favorable trade balance to an adverse trade balance, the minister of finance has requested the Canadian banks to decline to facilitate the importation or carrying of Canadian and other securities which have been held abroad. To that end the minister is requesting the banks to have purchasers of sterling or foreign exchange in amounts of a thousand dollars or over, and drawers of drafts received for collection from outside of Canada for the like amounts, certify that the exchange so required or the draft from abroad does not represent the purchase outside of Canada of such securities."

"The minister is of the opinion that it is impossible for Canada to absorb this portion of its foreign debt or foreign securities at the present juncture without embarrassment to general financial conditions. Every available dollar in Canada is required for the business of handling the crop movement and if money is withdrawn in the way referred to, the withdrawal will seriously affect and restrict the commercial activities of the country."

Preparing for Referendum

Ottawa.—With almost one-quarter of the work of a general election in their hands through the vote on the Canada Temperance Act being taken in four provinces simultaneously in October, the staff of the chief electoral officer, Col. O. H. Biggar, is spending many days getting the necessary documents and instructions into the hands of the returning officers.

There will be voting in 57 districts on the temperance question on the one day, and at the present time forms for taking the vote are being forwarded as fast as they can be packed and shipped. Returning officers throughout the whole of the provinces are apparently grasping the substance of the new act well, according to Col. Biggar, who stated that there was practically no evidence of confusion or misunderstanding among them and that no complaints as to difficulties were being received.

Col. Biggar stated that he had no intimation of any further postponement and that there were no new developments of any kind in connection with the plans.

The four provinces which vote on October 25 are Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia and Alberta.

Winnipeg.—Should the Provincial Government carry out Hon. A by-law authorizing this procedure was passed at a special meeting of the council. The $300,000 will allow about 75 more houses to be built this year.

EARTHQUAKE IN ITALY CAUSES GREAT DAMAGE

WIDESPREAD DISASTER FOLLOWS EARTH TREMORS.

Many Thousand Are Reported to be Injured in Violent Shock.

Rome.—Italy is again suffering from an earthquake disaster, the extent of which has not yet been measured. It is known, however, that hundreds of people have been killed and thousands injured. Many small towns and villages have been wrecked, and although assistance is being hurried from all parts of the country to the afflicted area, there is much suffering from want of food, medicines, and shelter for the people.

It is not yet possible to calculate how many hundreds are dead. The list up to this evening shows close to 400 already reported. There are many bodies under the ruins, and there are wounded also under the ruins who have not yet been reached by the rescuers. There are believed to be many thousands of injured; the hospitals at Spezia have already admitted 500, and 500 have been taken to other hospitals nearby. Improved hospitals composed of tents are caring for others.

All classes are combining in their efforts to render aid. Survivors describe the shock as terrifying, the air was filled with choking, blinding dust, so black that the sun was lost to view.

The great towers of medieval castles were shaken and partially destroyed. The Ducal Palace at Massacara, which was the summer residence of Napoleon's sister, was seriously damaged.

Russia Now Anxious

To Restore Peace

Soviets Were Amazed at Allies Imposing Blockade of Russia.

London.—The Russian declaration in London, headed by Mr. Kameneff, has published the reply of M. Tchitchine, the Bolshevik foreign minister, to the last note of Arthur J. Balfour, lord president of the council. It is a long and argumentative document in justification of the soviet administration. It denounces the face of the allied blockade of Russia, it is hardly in a position to express anything definite or anything but astonishment at the procedure. The note reiterates that peace, in order to develop her possibilities, is Russia's fundamental aim, and declares that the war with Poland is only an episode in the struggle for peace.

The Polish appeal for mediation in her dispute with Lithuania will be considered at the next meeting of the League of Nations which will be held in Paris September 16. It was then to be decided whether Lithuania, which is not a member of the league, will be asked to state its intentions. This is similar to the procedure resorted to in the case of the Aland Islands, in which Finland, a non-member, was called upon, with Sweden's permission, to submit its argument.

Impressed With Canada

Possibilities of the Dominion Realized by Press Delegates.

Montreal.—"You can say for me that we had a journey through Canada that has opened the eyes of the Imperial Press delegates as to the possibilities of this dominion," said Lord Burnham, head of the Imperial Press delegation, on their arrival here for the beginning of the conclusion of their tour of 8,000 miles of Canada.

The delegates went on to Quebec where they will stay until they sail on the Empress of Britain on September 15.

Orders Release of U.S. Vessel.

London.—Cubel d'Annunzio has disapproved the seizure of the American steamer Coyne by his officers, and will order its release, says a Rome despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, quoting advice from Fiume.

Liquor Barred From U.S. Navy.

Washington.—Spirituous liquors received their final and complete divorce from the United States navy in an order made public by the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery prohibiting their issue to naval vessels for medicinal purposes.

REASONS GIVEN FOR INCREASED RAILWAY RATES

JUDGMENT OF BOARD HAS BEEN ISSUED.

Advance in Wages and Operating Expenses Necessitated Raise in Rates.

Ottawa.—The judgment of the board of railway commissioners in the railway rate case, covering some 20 typewritten foolscap pages, has been issued. It was written by Hon. F. B. Carvell, chief commissioner, and is concurred in by four of the other five commissioners composing the board. It states the reasons of the board for arriving at the decision to grant increases in freight and passenger rates and emphasizes the fact that the railways have not received advances in rates consistent with the advancing cost of operation.

"I realize," said Mr. Carvell, "that these rates will be a substantial burden upon the people of Canada, but it was admitted by all parties at the hearing that the cost of everything entering into the operation and maintenance of railways has increased more than 100 per cent. in the last four years while the railway companies have been granted increases in what are known as the 15 per cent. and 25 per cent. cases, amounting on an average to not more than 35 per cent."

The judgment lays emphasis upon the fact that a large proportion of the increase granted will be taken in maintaining the increased wages which the employees of Canadian railways will receive when the Chicago wage award schedule goes into effect in Canada.

At the hearing, it says, Howard G. Kelly, speaking for the Railway Association of Canada, stated that they had decided to pay the railway employees the rates granted to the American employees by the Chicago award, granting back pay to May 1, last, and on cross-examination, he frankly admitted that the increase was not granted he firmly believed "there would be a general strike throughout Canada."

"Realizing the sincerity of his statement and the terrible results which would necessarily fall on the people of this country, as a whole, under such a contingency, I have taken his statement into consideration in adding this clause herein. It must not be forgotten that a very large part of the increase hereby granted will be necessary to take care of this increased wage, in the case of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company alone, amounting to nearly $22,000,000 per year."

Women Meet in Christiania

Discuss Problems Relating to Welfare of Individuals and Community.

Washington.—Women from countries that remained neutral and from those that took opposite sides in the war assembled in the first meeting since 1914 at the Quinquennial Congress of the International Council of Women, at Christiania, Norway, September 8 to 17.

The object of the congress is to provide a means of communication between women's organizations in all countries on questions relating to the welfare of the commonwealth, the family and the individual. Some 400 women have enrolled to attend. Discussions will be held on such subjects as new lines in the system of education, international aspects of public health, the housing problem, the campaign against social diseases, and the League of Nations.

Delegates will be received in the Royal Palace by Queen Maud of Norway, the city of Christiania will tender a luncheon and they will be entertained by various civic societies. The meetings of the council are to be held in the Norwegian Parliament Building.

B.C. Coal For Alaska.

Seattle.—Four ships of the Alaska Steamship Company's fleet are bound to Alaska ports with cargoes of British Columbia coal for points supposed adjacent to the Alaskan coal fields. Another vessel of the fleet with 1,000 tons of British Columbia coal will sail for Alaska.

More Than 500 Killed By Quake.

Rome.—The Epoca estimates that the dead in the earthquake which struck the Apennines on September 5 and 6 numbered more than 2,000.

Cox Would Present Irish Cause to the League of Nations

Not Satisfied With Increase

Railway Employees Want Advance of Thirty Per Cent. Over Present Scale.

Ottawa.—A. B. Mosher, grand president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, confirmed the statement that the recent increase of 20 per cent. did not satisfy the Canadian National Railways' employees and unskilled laborers. The employees demanded an increase of 30 per cent. of present wages.

The Canadian National Railway offered to apply the recent award of the United States Labor Board, which presented an increase of 20 per cent. over the McAdoo award of two years ago to these employees, many of whom already through schedule arrangements, increases greater than those represented by the award of the United States Labor Board.

Committee representing the employees of eastern lines will resume negotiations with officials of the Canadian National Railways, but no arrangements have yet been made. Mr. Mosher said, for joint representation to be made before the Canadian National Railways and the Grand Trunk Railway.

About 5,000 employees are affected on the eastern lines of the Canadian National Railways.

Jugo-Slavs Want Albania

Troops Are Already in Possession of Towns.

Rome.—Jugo-Slavia intends to make itself master of Albania, it is declared here in the light of recent reports. Jugo-Slavian troops have occupied Tarabosh and are attacking Kastri, Dibra and Elbasan. In the fighting at Dibra, the Jugo-Slavs have been repulsed, losing a number of cannon and machine guns. It is reported they lost 1,200 prisoners, Bosnian and Slovenian troops, surrendering. Other attacks being made are progressing more favorably.

Not Concerned With Freight Problems

Liverpool Market Regulates Flour And Grain Price.

Toronto.—The Liverpool price regulates that of flour and grain for the world, said a prominent Toronto milling firm manager this morning when asked if the increase in freight rates on the railways would affect the price of those commodities. "Liverpool is not concerned with our freight problems and is only anxious to buy in the cheapest market, but I think they cannot do better than in this country."

Bush Fires Under Control

Fires in Northern Manitoba Worst in Ten Years.

Winnipeg.—F. K. Hercher, district inspector of forestry department, received news that bush fires at Norway House are under control. No loss of life or damage to buildings has been reported. The bush fires in this district have been the worst recorded during the past ten years. Owing to lack of rain pasture has been completely dried up and farmers are already feeding stock.

Profits of Rum-Runners.

Detroit, Mich.—Profits running into millions of dollars will be taken by rum-runners operating between Canada and the Detroit district during 1920, according to estimates based upon figures by American and Canadian revenue officers. In some quarters the estimates of profit from illicit liquor sales run as high as $100,000,000 for the present year.

Troops Desert Semenov.

London.—General Semenov's adventures in the Far East have ended and his troops, under the leadership of General Lobkewitski, have gone over to the government of the Russian Far Eastern Republic, according to a wireless despatch from Moscow. Semenov's entire gold reserve is said to have been captured and handed over to the Vladivostok government.

Butte, Mont.—A definite pledge to "present the Irish cause" to the League of Nations in the event of his election was made by Governor Cox, of Ohio, in closing his Montana campaign.

"It would be my duty," said the Governor, "and very quickly availed of as a friend of peace, asserting the friendly right of any member of the League, to present the Irish cause to the attention of the League under the authority given by article eleven, and give to Ireland, or any other aggrieved people, the opportunity to plead their cause before the bar of civilized opinion."

The Irish question, Governor Cox said, needs settlement to promote peace between the English-speaking races. Reading article eleven of the League Covenant, providing for consideration by the League Council or Assembly of any international whatever, "which threatens to disturb either the peace or the good understanding between nations," the Governor said, that to Ireland, under existing conditions, the Irish question could not be presented to the bar of public opinion.

"Under the League it can," he continued. "We have four times as many people of Gaelic blood in the United States as there are in Ireland, and their natural tendency to wide co-operation between the English-speaking nations."

Want Impartial Tribunal

Says Evidence Can Be Produced In Ireland Convicting British Officials.

Dublin.—Arthur Griffiths, in a public statement, repudiates the suggestion of Premier Lloyd George that the charges against Terence Mooney relating to murder, and the actual findings of the court-martial. He denounces as infamous the suggestion that the previous Lord Mayor McCurtain was killed by his friends and soldiers in order to accept the proposal of the Bishop of Cork to establish an impartial tribunal, which evidence convicting Government officials of the Curtin murder would be produced.

Numerous Dublin houses including the Curtis printing works were raided by the military. Copies of portraits of MacSwiney and Archbishop Mannix were removed. Five arrests were made, including Councillor McCloyhugh, a prominent member of the corporation.

Marriage Laws in Quebec

Marriages Between Protestant and Catholics Not Binding in Decision.

Montreal.—The marriage of Bernard John Delaney and Gertrude Idella Barbeau, which took place at Quebec, Sept. 21, 1914, was annulled by a judgment of the Superior Court rendered by Mr. Justice Beaudouin on the wife's petition. The ground for dissolution was that being a mixed marriage, performed by a Protestant minister it could not be held legal and binding under the Quebec civil laws.

According to the petitioner, the couple went to the bishop's palace at Quebec on Sept. 21, 1914, and asked to be married. The request was refused both by a priest and the bishop, because she was a Protestant and Delaney a Catholic. Her fiancé then suggested they should be married by a Protestant minister and they went to St. Matthew's Anglican Church, Quebec, and were married by Rev. Canon Scott, by license. Her husband, she stated, then repudiated the marriage as having no binding effect on him, "spiritually, religiously or civilly."

There was no contest of the petition. Canadian Flax For Europe.

Ottawa.—R. J. Hutchinson, export agent of the Dominion Government, has sailed for Europe to market 6,000 tons of flax fiber and 200,000 pounds of flax for Canadian producers. The flax crop in Canada is reported as being exceptional and it is estimated that 30,000 acres of land were placed under cultivation this year, as compared with 18,000 in 1919.

We do not know the origin of the following, but possibly Bob Edwards or some other saint does. The world did not come to an end last December as was predicted by some fellow who did not know what he was talking about. We are glad he didn't know and we hope it will not come too soon; but if the worst is to happen, there are a lot of subscribers who ought to settle up, as we don't want to chase after hell to find them.

The bootlegger is today recognized as the most philanthropic of citizens from a stand-point of giving towards or buying tickets for benevolent enterprises. But the fact remains that all thanks are due the poor patron of the bootlegger and not to the bootlegger himself. You go to a bootlegger and offer to sell him a ticket or buy a donation. If he refuses, just threaten the attorney general on him, and the deal is off!

27 More Sorehead Subjects For Calgary Daily Newspapers

We wish to draw attention of the Calgary "sorehead" editors to the following "crimes" which happened in the Crow's Nest Pass this week: Four deaths, eight births (all boys, by gosh!) three marriages, seven robberies, one attempted suicide, a dry vote, one chap beating his board and a dog murder.

A local teacher was trading to her class, when she came across the word "unaware." She asked if anyone knew the meaning and one little girl timidly raised her hand and gave the following definition: "Unaware is what you put on first and take off last." That same teacher asked her class what Shakespeare meant by his frequent use of the phrase "Go to?" and a little lass answered: "I suppose he thought it wouldn't be polite or proper to finish the sentence."

Colonel James Walker, of Calgary, has been selected as commander of the R. C. M. P. Colonel Walker came to Canada in 1873 with Colonel French, when the force was established, and took part in the famous march across the untracked prairie to Fort Macleod, where not a man in the troop had been before.

Cowley Happenings

Miss McWilliams was a weekend visitor with her sister, Mrs. Leslie Fustian, at Frank.

Messrs. James Gerry and Ed. Baines, have returned to Cowley after an extended motor trip through Washington and British Columbia.

Word has been received of the death in Denver, Colorado, of Mr. James M. Easterbrook, who went there recently for special treatment. Much sympathy is felt for the members of the family.

What might have been a serious shooting fatality took place here before the dance Friday night, when George Allen, a local farmer, pointed a loaded automatic at Gordon Robinson and pulled the trigger, but the cartridge missed fire and he did not attempt to pull again. The cartridge was afterwards found on the spot, bearing the mark of the firing pin. Allen was overpowered by Robinson with some assistance, and the gun taken from him. A call was sent for the police and the man was taken to Pincher Creek without delay. At the examination before the local court the next morning, it was decided that Allen was not entirely sane and he was sent to Lethbridge to be kept under observation. Mrs. Robinson, who accompanied her husband at the time, has been confined to her bed since through the shock. Allen's actions were caused by an apparent religious mania, in which he considered that he was appointed by divine authority shown in the Bible to fight the dance evil.

The Cowley School Fair took place on Friday, the 10th. Although the fair building used this year was somewhat small for a proper display, the visiting judges were well satisfied with the quality of the exhibits, which were many and varied. The success of this institution can be judged by the fact that it has steadily grown from a small beginning four years ago to its present proportions here, and throughout the province there are no less than eighty school fairs being held this year. There was a large list of races for the juniors, also horse races to fill in the time. Although the day was rather rough, Capt. Palmer took the air with his machine and gave his usual performance, which was highly appreciated by the large crowd. The baseball fans were much disappointed at the non-appearance of the Coleman team. In the evening a public speaking and elocution contest was held in Tustian's hall. The pupils of the different schools competing gave a high class entertainment. Prizes were awarded the winners. A largely attended dance was held following the children's contest.

Mr. Powell, principal of Coleman public school, was in town on Saturday, taking a census of blind-peddlers to ascertain the possible strength of the Pass dry vote.

Winnipeg Kiddies' Revue

The funniest and fastest vaudeville show in the west is booked for the opera house at Coleman on Thursday, September 23rd.

Canadians who doubt that their own country can produce the best stage talent on the globe are due for a big surprise when they see the Original Winnipeg Kiddies who have amassed scores of records in both Canada and the United States and whose history is more astounding and unique than any other show in existence today.

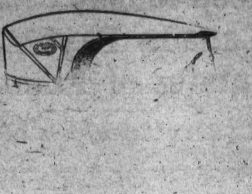

The performance given by these Kiddies is a riot of color and comedy, of melody and mirth. You forget all about them being kids after the first five minutes, and you settle down to enjoy a show that has broken records made by big New York successes.

These kiddies started out when they were about seven years old. Their aim was to raise funds for patriotic purposes. That was in the days of the Original Kiddies who have amassed scores of records in both Canada and the United States and whose history is more astounding and unique than any other show in existence today.

Britain's Recuperative Powers

Great Britain has wonderful recuperative powers. She has already paid in the form of taxes and war contributions about twenty billion dollars, or thirty-six per cent. of her total war expenses. The mind can scarcely grasp the war cost to the British government. In six years fifty-six billion dollars were expended. Some idea of what this outpouring of treasure means may be gathered from the fact that it amounted to more than the total cost of running the government during the previous 225 years, including the financing of eight big wars and many little ones. Although her debt has soared tremendously in recent years, Great Britain is no worse off to-day than she was at the close of the Napoleonic period.

In the case of a general election within the next twelve months, the registration lists being prepared for the plebiscite would be used without revision or change of any kind. No general election is in sight, but you never can tell, with the present government supported by such a variety of parties the election might be called off any time. So, all in all, it would be better if every person entitled to vote should go up to the registration booth and register.

The following resolution, passed at a recent regular meeting of the local school board, has been forwarded to the Secretary-Treasurer of the town for the Council's consideration:

"Resolved, that to facilitate the efforts of the school board in their endeavor to conduct the affairs of the district at the lowest possible cost to the ratepayers, it is advisable that we request the Town of Blairmore to refund to the School District as early a date as possible the monies collected as school taxes and appropriated by the Town."

A party of local fishermen went out to Cochrane Lake duck hunting last week. After peeping the lives out of about fifteen birds they met a stickler, some sort of a bird, resembling somewhat a duck, just dodged the number five for about an hour. It was mad and magnetic head in the water at the futile efforts of would-be gunmen to touch him.

"They're a bunch of bad ones," said Smythe; "a regular band of cut-throats. They know no law and they hold life as cheap as water. Big McIntosh has incited the others against you. They swear they will kill you if you set foot on Bushwhacker's Place."

"I'm not anxious to set foot on Bushwhacker's Place providing I can secure the timber through an agent. But the timber I must have. I gave Watson money with which to start the ball rolling. Maybe I'll see that money again and maybe I won't. As I said before, I don't trust either you or Watson very far. But both of you know me."

"We will do your very utmost to get the timber," said Smythe; and as the Colonel turned toward him he added, "for you."

"It might be a good idea," said Hallibut. "As for those Bushwhackers, I'm not caring a cent what they think of me. I tried to show them that I was interested in their welfare by building that schoolhouse, that they might educate their children, and by giving it to them—and the end it stands on. I've hired young Simpson to teach the school, or you did with my money, which amounts to the same, and after all this you say the Bushwhackers want to kill me. Grateful, aren't they?"

"If you hadn't built that mill after you had got possession of the timber—'I'll tell Smythe,' but the Colonel interrupted him.

"See here, I built that mill on my own land, didn't I? Surely I don't have to ask permission from anybody else when I want to do anything with my own."

"I was merely going to say that the mill has driven the fur-bearing animals out of the creek," smiled Smythe. "The Bushwhackers say you have spoiled the best trapping, sir."

"Well, I'm sorry for that, but my intentions were good. I looked upon those people as a simple-hearted lot of men and women whose friendship was worth the winning. It's funny—no wanting friends at my age. But I'm getting old and fanciful, I guess."

Smythe scratched his chin and squinted along the back-like nose as though he were aiming the remark at a crack in the floor, as he said:

"They're not particular about having the trees cut down. They live mostly by shooting and trapping. But I do know that two thousand acres of walnut, beech, and hickory is worth a fortune to somebody."

"Humph! And how long have you known that? Seems queer to me that

A crowning curative triumph in medicine is now even to the world, and all who have been sufferers from stomach ailments, indigestion and headache can be cured by a purely vegetable remedy.

Colonel, salts and such like are no longer necessary. They are harsh and disagreeable. Science has devised something far superior, and you can go today with 25c to any druggist and buy a box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are considered the very quickest and safest cure for the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys.

you and Watson haven't tried to corner this timber for yourselves."

The storekeeper lifted his hands.

"Surely you know us better than that," he protested.

"I know dogs better than I do men," said Hallibut, "and I trust dogs I've never seen many men that I could trust. It was a man stole the best thing I ever had in life."

"Ah," Mr. Smythe, rubbed his hands together and smiled, "Hallibut looked at him, an expression of disgust on his face."

"Yes, but not the kind of woman you know. This one was my sister."

"Just so," smiled the grocer; and then he whispered again, "just so."

"Did you or Watson tell the Bushwhackers what I intend to do with the boat?" asked Hallibut after a little time had elapsed.

"Yes, and they say that as soon as you try and put your schooner up on the lake there will be trouble. They told Watson to tell you so," said Smythe.

"So they warn me, eh?" Hallibut left his chair and paced up and down the floor.

Smythe sat with a smile of satisfaction on his weathered face.

"Of course, they can't stop you from entering the harbor and sailing around Round Bay; neither can they prevent you from sailing up the creek. But," he added impressively, "they can burn your boat."

"Don't talk foolishness," cried Hallibut. "They aren't quite crazy. If they tried anything like that on with me, I'd wipe 'em out; you hear me—wipe the whole bunch of 'em out!"

"I think Mr. Watson and I may make some amicable arrangements with the misguided people," said Smythe.

"Well, see that you do. Neither of you are honest, and you should make success of any job that requires underhand work. But this is a straight, fair, and square offer. See that you make the Bushwhackers understand that I want to treat them squarely."

He sat down and gazed across at Smythe. Slowly the purple died in his face, and he relighted his pipe and smoked it thoughtfully.

"It's hard to understand some men," he said—"mighty hard. But then it's mighty hard to understand some dogs, too. I've seen dogs, and owned 'em, intelligent enough to understand most everything I said to them. But somehow I never got to know their language. Still I'm called a dog's superior. Strange, isn't it? Now, your friend Watson reminds me of a dog that would wag and fawn all he could out of you."

He nodded his great head slowly and sent a cloud of smoke ceilingward.

"As the case stands, I've trusted him with my money. The question is, will he play me false?"

Mr. Smythe opened his milk-blue eyes wide.

"Oh, you may trust him, my dear Colonel," he said earnestly. "Mr. Watson, Sir, is an honest servant; a faithful Christian."

"Humph, think so? Well, maybe you're right. I'm not feeling exactly like myself tonight, Smythe, and I'm fanciful, I guess. The fellow who's rigging my schooner told me a story this morning—not a nice story, either—and he been thinking ever since about a poor woman who died with not a single friend near her. Here's the sailor's story:

"A man by the name of Watts, who was said to be a ferryman, lived on the Detroit River somewhere near Sandwich. A crippled sister kept house for him, and he, according to report, was a bad one all round. One night he brought across from the American side a woman and her baby.

They had come a long distance, it seems, and the woman was sick—in fact, she was dying. This Watts saw she had money, and he took her to his home, where she died that very night. Before the end came she consigned the baby to the care of Watts and obtained a promise from him that he would try and find a man—the sailor couldn't remember the name—and place the baby, along with a certain parcel she was carrying, with him."

Smythe laughed, unasily.

"That was a pretty big contract for Watts to take on."

"Of course, he never intended to keep it," said Hallibut. "She gave him money with which to seek out her friends. The sailor says he put it in his pocket and let the County bury the poor woman."

"And the baby?" queried Smythe, his face twitching.

"I'm coming to that. It seems this Watts' hunchback sister was a good woman at heart. She wanted to keep the baby. But he sent the child away into the forest with an Indian on a sledgoose chair and kept the parcel."

Smythe made five dots on the paper before him.

"What was in the parcel?" he asked, wiping his eyes.

"The sailor didn't know, but it was reported to be money. You'll make me wish I hadn't told you this harrowing story, Smythe."

"Poor mother; poor little orphan," sighed the storekeeper.

The Colonel sat at him.

"Did I say that the baby's father had died?" he asked. "You're right enough, his father was dead. The woman told Watts as much."

Hallibut arose and stretched his long arms. He was a man far past middle age, with iron-gray hair, a large face, and deep, kindly eyes. He stood over six-foot-two, was broad of shoulder, and straight as an arrow.

Letter "E" Most Fortunate

Reasons Why We Could Not Do Without It.

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate character in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger, and in hell all the time. But we call attention to the fact that "e" is never in war, and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease, and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no food, no heaven: It is the centre of honesty, makes love perfect, and without it there would be no editors, devils or news.

In reference to the foregoing, a Calgarian remarks that "e" completed a legitimate marriage, for it was the beginning and end of Eve. It starts lover's engagements and completes their marriage. It is the most fortunate, for it always comes in late and is always in time. It will make butter, better and put faith in the taste, and after all it has done, and is doing, it is just the beginning of the end.

Report of Movement Of 1919 Crops

Largest Part of Grain Moved By Lake Route.

In a report issued by the Dominion bureau of statistics, on the movement of last season's crop, it is shown that only 253,607 bushels went straight through to the east, by rail, either destined for points in eastern Canada or to the eastern part of the United States. As is always the case, the largest shipment out of the west went by way of the terminals, Port William and Port Arthur.

During the crop year 1918, 240 bushels passed into the public and private elevators at these two ports of shipment.

Two main streams of wheat are shown as going into the United States. Of these 2,797,037 bushels went by way of Buffalo, and 1,167,959 bushels via other United States lake ports, and 19,033,311 bushels moved by rail from the eastern port, while 184,109 bushels were cleared for consumption in the United States, and 3,964,996 bushels from the shipments to lake ports including Duluth.

No attempt is made to show by what ports this wheat moved out of the United States, but the movement was entirely from Atlantic ports. So far as exports are concerned, says the report, it is correct to conclude that this wheat was exported into other countries by way of United States ports.

Canada's Coal Output

Estimates of Year's Production Are Disappointing.

According to latest reports coal production is not nearly up to expectations in Canada. The total production for the last calendar year of the Dominion was 13,500,000 tons below the maximum output of the Canadian mines, which was reached in 1913, figures that year being 15,012,178 tons.

The falling off in production is stated to be greater in Nova Scotia than any other province in the Dominion. In 1913 Nova Scotia produced 8,000,000 tons, while in 1919 she produced only 5,700,000 tons.

Flyers Develop Far-Seeing Look

Hundred-Mile-an-Hour Face Never Looks Weary.

The "100-mile-an-hour face has arrived!" People who meet passengers by the air ferry at Paris say that these aerial voyagers breathe deeply, with wide-open eyes, as they set foot again on familiar earth. There is a sparkle in their expressions. Any trace of boredom or cynicism appears swept from their faces by the purity of the upper air.

When they take the auto which carries them to their hotel they have a look of pitying impatience at the crawling vehicle. "Crossed the channel in ten minutes," they say, "and it's taking us more than that to get to the end of this street!"

The 100-mile-an-hour face doesn't wear an expression of weariness with lines suggestive of mental strain. On the contrary the expression is one of steadfast composure, with the quiet far-seeing face of the man who sweeps wide vistas.

Seamen have such an expression, but air observers say that flyers are likely to develop it to the nth degree.
